The Yolo Democrat,
With a Weekly Supplement.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY.

WOODLAND, CAL.
Thursday, August 3d, 1876.

NATIONAL Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT:
SAMUEL J. TILDEN,
OF NEW YORK.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:
THOS. A. HENDRICKS,
OF INDIANA.
FOR CONGRESSMAN:
J. K. LUTTRELL,
OF SONOMA COUNTY.

The Resolutions.

At the State Convention of the California Democracy held in San Francisco last week the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the Democracy of California accept and endorse the Democratic declaration of principles adopted by the recent Democratic National Convention assembled at St. Louis as a true and faithful exposition of Democratic sentiments upon the practical issues of the day.
Resolved, That the Chinese plank of our National platform is in strict conformity with our resolutions adopted at our last session, and so bold and unequivocal a stand on this important question, so vital to our prosperity as a State, that we congratulate the people of the Pacific Coast on the prospect thus afforded for relief.
Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to our National Delegation for the faithful and efficient representation of the Democracy of this State in the national councils of the party.
Resolved, That we hail with pleasure the names presented for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency, the noted Governors of the Union, Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, and unqualifiedly certify their nominations.
Resolved, That the question of local self-government and reform against centralization and official corruption is now fairly before the people of the Union, and we, as patriots, dare not anticipate defeat.
Resolved, That our mission, above all others, in the war we are now waging against the present national administration, is the enforcement of the God given command—"Thou shalt not steal."

TURKEY.—The war still continues with disaster to both sides, but nothing decisive has yet occurred. There is a rumor of interference on the part of Greece.

A BIG STEAL.—While the clerks of the Bank of Nova Scotia were watching a circus procession on the 1st inst., a man entered and carried off $17,500 in notes.

R. R. EXTENSION.—It is now reported that the railroad will be completed so that cars can run between San Francisco and Los Angeles by the 20th of September.

THE NEW HAVEN REGISTER says: "Grantism is still the real issue before the people. Zach Chandler, Don Cameron, 'Bloody Shirt' Morton; and all the rest of them will tell you so."

FATAL EXCURSION.—An accident occurred to a party of excursionists at Hilledale, Mich., on the 1st, by which nine persons were drowned by the sinking of a boat upon the lake near Hilledale.

BEKNAP ACQUITTED.—As was generally expected, Belknap was acquitted by the United States Senate on Tuesday, apparently on the ground of want of jurisdiction, but whether this was the real ground of acquittal every citizen acquainted with the facts ought to be able to determine in his own mind.

THE FRONTIER.—Nothing of particular interest at this distance has occurred at the seat of the Indian war. Of course movements of troops are being made looking to future operations that shall cook Mr. Indian's goose, and it is said by the authorities that the intention is to "do it very brown."

ACCEPTANCE.—The telegraph announced that Tilden and Hendricks' joint letter of acceptance would be out yesterday. We look for something clear and vigorous from our candidates, both being gentlemen of positive character, extensive experience and high culture. The public acceptance of our candidates, now that the nominations are all made, fully opens the campaign, and the very next thing is to have a complete organization everywhere and go into the fight to win.

COLUMBIA.—From the Sun of July 29th we have the following items: On the 24th a boiler belonging to a steam thrasher exploded at Burton's ranch, near Jacinto, killing John Lebe and another man instantly and wounding three others. A young man named Griffith T. Williams is supposed to have committed suicide by drowning; his clothes were found on the bank of the river. Ex-County Treasurer Harry Peyton died on the 24th. A Tilden and Hendricks Club has been formed at Colusa. There is preaching at Williams' every Sunday.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.—Following are the names of the Presidential Electors and Alternates chosen by the Democratic State Convention:
First Congressional District—Stuart M. Taylor, Elector; Capt. John Mallan, Alternate.
Second District—J. H. Budd of Stockton, Elector; T. F. Bagge of Alameda, Alternate.
Third District—Barclay Henley, Elector; Marion Biggs of Butte, Alternate.
Fourth District—Frank Ganahl of Los Angeles, Elector; J. B. Castro of Monterey, Alternate.
Electors at Large—Dr. J. C. Shorb and Judge John S. Hager, with Jos. Naphthal and Cameron H. King, as Alternates.

Shirking the Responsibility.

It is amusing to observe the inconsistency of the Record-Union of Sacramento, in reference to the Presidential canvass. Its great anxiety to prove that the Republican party is not responsible for the conduct of President Grant, is the source of innumerable inconsistencies and gross absurdities. In nearly every issue for the last month there has been something of this sort in its editorial columns. It is trying its utmost to convince its readers in this and some other counties, where many swallow all its assertions without question, that Grant is trying to injure the Republican party, and that this pure party is in no wise responsible for anything the Executive does. This we observe is the course adopted by some other journals; but we wish to pay our respects especially to the Record-Union. It has declared time and again that the Republican party are not responsible for Grant's acts; yet its reasoning is that those who manage the party—those who control its conventions and make its nominations, are in the closest relations of intimacy with the Executive, and that the measures that paper objects to were inaugurated by the Executive at the suggestion of the ruling power of the party, for the election of Hayes and Wheeler. The Record-Union, in its issue of July 13th, says: "It is intimated that these 'managers' whose aim it is to govern the Republican party through the 'machine,' conceived the idea that as Connecticut was hopelessly Democratic, it was useless to propitiate that State by a seat in the Cabinet, and that since Indiana might be doubtful, it would be well to compliment her with the position. So Jewell was asked to resign, and an Indiana man appointed in his place. This seems the probable explanation of the matter," etc.

Now who do the Record-Union men mean by "these managers who run the machine?" They have not left us in doubt on this subject. In their issue of June 24th, under the caption "Blaine's Condition," we find this language: "The cold-blooded and unprincipled political schemers whose treacherous opposition caused his (Blaine's) defeat, the cant of partisan politicians—the men who run the machine." Again, the party that permits its Don Camerons to defeat its Blaines will soon have to rely upon the "machine" for its ability to resist the opposition. And still again: "The 'machine managers' will do well to go down upon their knees and pray, if they never prayed before, for Blaine's recovery; for should he die from the effects of their betrayal we would not give a copper cent for the prospects of the Republican ticket, no matter who the Democrats may put up at St. Louis." We might quote from half a dozen other issues, but this is sufficient to prove that the "managers who run the machine" are the men who defeated Blaine, and that they managed the Convention, or the machine, so as to defeat him. They therefore are a majority of at least the leaders of the Republican party. But if these managers defeated Blaine, they also nominated Hayes and Wheeler. These managers go to President Grant, so says that paper, and ask him to remove Jewell and appoint Tyner for the purpose of carrying Indiana for the Republican ticket. These "managers of the machine" looked around and found men of their own way of thinking, and selected them for candidates for the Republican party's support. Does the Record-Union, or can any person of common sense, for one moment believe that Hayes is not acting in perfect accord with his managers; that he did not approve of the dismissal of Jewell and the appointment of Tyner for the purpose of carrying Indiana? Is Hayes too honest for this thing? Is it not as dishonest as the back salary grab? and we are told Hayes took this money from the Treasury. These "managers who want to govern the Republican party" are certainly responsible for these electioneering enormities, for they ask Grant to act in the premises, and Grant good naturedly does as the managers of the "machine" request. He is in accord with the party and the party are responsible for his acts, a few papers to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Record-Union next goes out in its issue of July 25th and asks the Republican members of the United States Senate to take a firm stand in opposition to Grantism, and thus convince the country that the course of the President is not endorsed by the party. The Senate will hardly stultify itself by such an act; for they evidently know it is too late now to repudiate Grant. They know the party is responsible for all his blunders and all his corrupt practices. The Senate has pursued a directly opposite course, and most readily and emphatically endorsed his action. His nominations have been confirmed with an alacrity that is not only unusual, but done in such hot haste as to prove that the most of them were aware of the programme—that it was "cut and dried"—that this role was allotted to them by previous arrangement. Had it been otherwise, there would have been hesitation, discussion and criticism of the Executive by disapproving Senators. This is the reasonable explanation, for as the Senators are generally in unison and friendship with the "managers who run the machine" that nominated Hayes and Wheeler, it is perfectly natural that when Grant by request ousted Jewell and nominated Tyner, they should approve—should say by their silence and by their party action, "well done good and faithful." Grant, the Record speaks of "the Don Camerons who run the machine," we therefore conclude that old Simon is at least of this ring that runs the party. The truth is that Grant, Hayes and Wheeler, the managers, the Senators and a majority of the Republican party, are all in unison. It is true the Record-Union in its issue of June 27th had an article headed "Bottle up the Candidates," in which it requests his friends and admirers to keep Wheeler from making speeches, and also says: "We trust his advisers will take and keep him off the ground hereafter." It is not likely he has been "bottled up," and therefore knows and opposes "the dirty work" his friend Grant is doing for him; and to be candid, we fear the action of Grant, with his access to the Treasury, his $5,000,000, and his control of the army, far more than would the influence of fifty newspapers like the Record-Union. We fear he may yet use the bayonet to carry the election in the Southern States. Things are beginning to shape in this direction. Such outbreaks as the Hamburg affair, which is clearly chargeable to the party in power, may be made the apology for the Executive to use the bayonet against honest and innocent men and deprive them the free exercise of the election franchise. If Grant would again take this course, he would again become an idol. If for some paltry excuse he would carry the Presidential election, all his moral deformities would be overlooked and his bad deeds forgotten. The lust of power is strong in the Radical party, and therefore we fear the "managers"—the Chancellors and Don Camerons—may ask for "a little more blood-letting." In the Record's politics the end justifies the means, and we fear the moral depravity begotten by ten years of corrupt administration.

ORGANIZE.

Now that the Democracy have held their State and Congressional Conventions and a full ticket is in the field, it is time a Tilden and Hendricks Club was formed in Woodland. We call attention to the following instructions agreed upon by the State Central Committee and adopted by the State Convention:
WHEREAS, The State Central Committee of the Democratic party of the State of California, desiring to organize a thorough and perfect organization of the many and various counties throughout the State, and to organize a plan of campaign, to be closely followed in the approaching election, as follows:
First—That the State Convention do instruct the several County Central Democratic Committees throughout the State of California to at once call together their several members and at once organize district Clubs, under their auspices, direction and control throughout their respective counties, which Clubs shall be subordinate to said County Central Committees, and which Clubs shall be recognized by and derive all their authority by charter from said Central Committees.
Second—That all Clubs so organized, formed or constituted within each county of the State shall, through their President and Secretary, report to the Central Committee at the county seat of each county, and all matters pertaining to the organization, progress, movements and prosperity of their respective Clubs.
Third—That the County Central Committees, in conjunction with the Legislative Committee of the several Senatorial Districts contained within their respective counties, shall issue a call to the voters of their respective counties, to be kept as part of the archives of the Democratic party in this State. The Report was received without debate, after which the Convention adjourned sine die.

OUR NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS.—If Congress adjourns soon, as it doubtless will, this district will again have the pleasure and satisfaction of listening to the clarion notes of Hon. J. K. Luttrell. He has been a consistent and energetic worker for the interests of his constituents while in Congress, notwithstanding the charge some have attempted to bring against him that he was working in the interest of railroads. An open letter written some time ago to Governor Irwin nails that falsehood. The letter is signed by Hon. Wm. S. Holman, S. S. Cox, Sam. J. Randall, Jas. J. Kelley, F. F. Bayard, and A. G. Thurman and says: "He has worked faithfully and efficiently in the interest of the people and against monopolies, and in accord with the resolution adopted by the House against subsidies of every character. He has made a good and valuable representative." No one can show anything in his Congressional career that is not entirely consistent with his professions and promises before he was sent to Congress. His labors have not been in vain. He went to Congress on the same issue as prevails so extensively in this campaign—reform of the abuses in the Administration. He made a thorough canvass last year and won not only the ears but the hearts of the people. This he will do again with greater effect. He is just the man for this Tilden and Reform campaign, and will be, as before, triumphantly elected. So we hope and believe.

STATE MEETINGS.—The Annual State Meeting of the Christian Church will convene at the Old State Meeting Ground, near Yountville, on Friday, September 22nd next. From all indications it is going to be a great affair, action, well done good and faithful. Grant, the Record speaks of "the Don Camerons who run the machine," we therefore conclude that old Simon is at CAMPAIGN NOTES.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

William Cullen Bryant is for Tilden. The Herald's Saratoga Special says: The National Democratic Committee will meet in New York on Thursday, compare views and arrange a general plan of the campaign.

It is interesting to notice that the men who resisted the nomination of Ben. Bristow at Cincinnati likewise resisted the nomination of Sam. Tilden at St. Louis, remarks the New York Sun.

Ex-Governor Dix is very savage upon Governor Tilden, which is pardonable, humbly speaking, when it is remembered how the latter beat him by a majority of over 50,000 votes two years ago.

Austin Blair, Michigan's popular "war Governor," has declared for Tilden and Hendricks.

The Northampton (Mass.) Journal, heretofore a strong Republican organ, comes out squarely and enthusiastically for the Democratic National ticket.

Henry Watterson, the brilliant editor of the Courier-Journal, has accepted the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Louisville District.

Tennessee is overtopped with Tilden and Hendricks Clubs.

General Dix is a better man in every way than a dozen like Hayes. Our Uncle Samuel beat General Dix clear out of sight.

Geo. C. Gorham announces his intention of stumpng California for Hayes and Wheeler during the campaign, and yet there are Republicans who claim that they will carry the State.

Senator Morton declares the policy of retrenchment to be mere demagoguery. If so, the country wants as much of it as possible in times like these, when the people have no money to spare for extravagance and corruption.

Mr. Dana said at Cincinnati that there was but one man he knew who could carry Massachusetts, and that was Bristow.

Tilden and reform will sweep the country like a whirlwind. The two words are inseparable.

One of the speakers at the Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting at Aurora, Ill., was John F. Farnsworth, formerly Republican member of Congress from this district for several successive terms.

The Club Democratique Français, central organization of French Democratic voters of the east side of the city (N. Y.) met at 102 Prince street, and the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks was approved by a unanimous vote. In a French population of thirty thousand there are about eight thousand voters, most of whom, it is estimated, will vote for Tilden and Reform.

The men Gen. Grant thinks fit for office are Shepherd, Harrington, Belknap, Robertson, Avery, Joyce, et id omne genus, in State Prison and out.

The proofs multiply, says the N. Y. Sun, that the Republican managers will try to carry four or five Southern States this fall with the bayonet. The States to which we more particularly refer are Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Alabama. They may also find it necessary to use the same means to avert defeat in Florida, and even in South Carolina, in both of which the party is weakened by bitter feuds.

COLORADO ADMITTED.—The President has signed the bill admitting Colorado as a State of the American Union. This makes the thirty-eighth State.

FARMERS AND MECHANICS, THINK OF IT.—Mr. Ryland, Chairman of the late Democratic State Convention stated in his opening speech that "there are 4,000 separate articles specified in the Tariff Bill, and not a single one of them to protect the farmer, the laborer or the mechanic." The wealthy manufacturers and other capitalists are the classes who are "protected" in this so-called Republican government! We don't wonder your ire rises in view of these things. It was not so under Democratic rule; it will not be so under Tilden. Keep up good courage, friends; don't faint when the end of the darkness is so near. A brighter day is dawning upon our country. It will not be long before poor men will have their rights under the law, in this country, when all will be equal before the law and possibly a white man will then be as good as his more dusky neighbor.
